What is the process for commenting on projects on Trust land?	Public comment regarding projects on Trust land is most effective when provided early in the decision process. Trust land is managed by the Trust Land Office (TLO) on behalf of the Trust Authority. Written comment is sought by the TLO on a per-project basis. Before each project, the TLO consults with the Board of Trustees and issues a “best interest decision and public notice” regarding the project. The best interest decision and instructions for submitting comments are posted on the Trust Land Office website , through the State of Alaska Online Public Notices and in local newspapers. Following the comment period, the TLO may affirm, revise or rescind the best interest decision regarding the project. Of course, public comment regarding any Trust land issue may be provided to the Trustees at any time at the address or fax number below, by email to public.comment@mhtrust.org or at Trustee meetings as described above.
